

BUILT TO STANDARD

CREW BIOS

DIRECTOR

Mikayla Moore is a driven creative with a passion for filmmaking and story crafting. She's a 15 year old from Frederick Maryland and her goal is to become a director. @blisslavender15

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

Aaliyah Idrissa, Washington D.C. native, is a 16-year-old filmmaker with a flourishing passion for storytelling. As a 2025 Alumni of Black Girls Film Camp, she strives to cultivate a path of prosperity for the next generation of Black girl filmmakers. @lensofaaliyah

EDITOR

Lauren McGarrett is an award-winning editor and filmmaker based out of South Florida. With a passion for telling creative stories, she's collaborated on short, feature, narrative and documentary films. @afilmbylau

PRODUCER

Makayla Brown is an actress, writer, and casting director from Charlotte, NC, dedicated to telling stories that explore human connection and emotion. She studied Theatre Arts at Appalachian State University and is currently adapting her book into her first feature film. @themakaylamarie

CINEMATOGRAPHER/DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Dominic Easter is an award-winning Director of Photography, cinematographer, director, photographer, and editor working across narrative and commercial projects. Known for his elegant, cinematic style, his work blends classical beauty with a modern edge. He has shot campaigns for global brands including Chevy, Jack Daniels, Showtime, Nike, the NFL, Dior, and Universal Music Group. Based in Miami, Dominic continues to produce indie films and collaborate with leading creatives and production companies. His short film Don't Let It In premiered at the Miami International Film Festival in 2020. @dominiceaster